

ried and refined d tablets that are caless, safe and sure. dicinal virtues retaini and improved. Sold nly in sealed packages.

JW TO GET RID

The quick way is to use Dr. King's New Discovery

DON'T put off until tonight what you can do today. Step into you druggist's and buy a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Start taking it at once. By the time you reach home you'll be on the way to recovery.

This standard family friend has been brenking colds, coughs, grippe attacks, and croup for more than fifty years. It's used wherever sure-fire rellef is appreciated. Children and grownups alike can use it—there is no disagreeable after-effect. Your druggist has it. 60c. and $1.20 bottles.

Bowels Begging for Help Torpid liver pleading for assistance? How careless to neglect these things when Dr. King's New Life Pills so promptly, middly, yet effectively come to their reflef!

Leaving the system uncleaned, clogged bowels unmoved, results in health-destructive after-effects. Let stimulating, tonic-in-action Dr. King's New Life Pills bring you the happiness of regular, powers of the control regular, normal bowels and liver func-tioning. Keep feeling fit, doing the work of a man or woman who finds relish in it. All druggists—25c.

Dr.Kelloggs Asthma Remedy

Northrop & Lyman Co., Inc., Buffalo, N.Y.

Makes 9 Out of 10

burn. belching, food-repaiting, bloat, sour, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims of Acid-Stomach everywhere—people who as suffer from the season of the suffer to nervousness, headache, inecania, bilioueness—people who suffer from the umatism, jumbago, scialica and aches and rains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 5 people out of 16 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach.

If you suffer from stomach trouble or, even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and alling, feel tired and dragged out, lack "pep" and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong although you cannot locate the exact cause of your from the property of the suffer of the property of the suffer of the property of the state EATONIC, the wooderful inadern remedy that brings quick relief from pains of indigestion, belching, gassy bloat, etc. Keep your general health improves—how quickly the old-time vim, vigor and vitality comes back!

Get a big 56c box of EATONIC from your a big 59c box of EATONIC from your

EATONIC FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACK

SHORTHORN Is the

TO SHINE A COLD STOVE Use E-Z STOVE POLISH

THE IMPOSTOR

By FRANK L. PACKARD

CHAPTER VI-Continued.

"It is as the Kanaka said," Gunga nodded. "Sahib, a question: How did done, all would have been well. you know of those Chinamen and "One of them told me as he was dying," Wallen replied, "because, I suppose, I had nursed him as best I ould through the night."

"Yes," Gunga nodded his head again But I will end first the Kanaka's tale so that the sahib will understand all else the better. The Kanaka had crew, long before the ship came to

"It was in Honolulu that for much oney he was hired by one of Ram Gulab Singh's agents to kill the mas-

"If he falled in that he was to stir up the crew to dream of the treasre-hunt, sahib, which, with so strange

"It Is Too Long a Story to Tell Now, always.

voyage as was theirs, would readily believed, so that it might come about that the crew and officers would take things into their own hands, and Ram Gulab Singh—and upon the maswould take the ship to the place Ram Gulab Singh had set down upon the that it was the hand of Ram Gulab paper, and where Ram Gulab Singh Singh that struck. the master and upon them all, sahib, no need until you, by Allah's will, came

"Go on!" urged Wallen tensely. "I ga-and this Ram Gulab Singh?"

"The young sahib is twenty-four," said Gunga. "It began two years be- Gulab Gulab sh's agents in higher quarfore you were born. The master was a great merchant here, owning schoon- man, ers by means of which he traded with sall wit matives. Rame Gulab Singh was these islands.

"He was very powerful, and his wealth was beyond reckoning. "Also, sahib, he was a murderer and thief, whereby he had his wealth; thief, whereby he had his wealth; a thief, whereby he had his wealth; and he hid his face behind the British government, whom he deceived. Your father lost one schooner and then another and many goods; and knowing in his heart that it was Ram Gulab Singh, he complained to the government. But because he could prove nothing, nothing was done, sahib; only that it came to the ears of Ram Gulab Singh, and he mocked your father, my master, by messengers in private.

"Sahib, my master was a brave man, and of great cunning. He loaded a too much to be refused. schooner with such richness of goods that it was common talk; but also, in secret, he placed abundance of arms upon the vessel; and at night, as she sailed, he himself came aboard in the darkness with many men to join the because it would seem that the guilt crew, and of these I was one, sahib,

"It came about as the master had ther's schooner, and thinking it a prize proas, and our men lay hidden below all were gone, I was too late. Sahib the decks, that they might not be seen | the tale is told." until the pirates, led by Ram Gulab Singh himself, boarded us from the long time he sat immovable-while a to Allah I might see again before I die, twinkled brighter in the greater darkfor my arm is still strong and my ness, and until the moonlight strugblood is the blood of youth, and the gled forth again in a silver, waving years count not. They fought as rep- path-until there came a little splash tiles fight who must either fight or die. in the distance, as though a fish had But half escaped, and those by swim- jumped. ming to the proas which, in their first onslaught, after all had come on board of us, we had cut adrift from the for now he dipped his oars and rowed schooner's sides. "Many times in the melee my mas-er tried to single out Ram Gulab "Wash your hands, sahib," he said ter tried to single out Ram Gulab Singh, that they might meet face to in low tones, "for they are red." face, but it was only at the last the Ram Gulab Singh-such, sahib, is the come alongside unnotice reading of the paper with the one-fingered hand. confessed; but against these Ram ton fully dressed, was snoring in his the slag. Gulab Singb sent many to take the oath that he had been elsewhere at the len's second knock.

time. And so again there was not the "Hello!" he blinked. "Oh, you, Mr.

EX-WAR PRISONERS LOYAL frantic with joy at having them. The | hearts will succumb more easily. Herr German Soldiers, Back From Captivity In England, Turn Deaf Ears to Spartacan Pleading.

Berlin.-The prisoners of war returned from England are well fed and men and preach their unrest and chaos ciothed, writes C. M. Schmidt from and disorder. the collection camp at Meschede. The forces behind the move have was the last where the men are concentrated and then are sent to their homes.

They are naturally overjoyed to be to home, their relatives sometimes the control of the prisoners, after the prisoners, after the prisoners, after the prisoners and sweet the prisoners and sweet the prisoners.

pressed the matter and asked that an rmed force be sent against Ram Gulab Singh. Sahlb, if that had been "Instead, the government deemed it wise to bring only great dishenor upon Ram Gulab Singh, and they stripped Ram Gulab Singh of all rank and authority, and for several years patrolled the waters of the island closely." Gunga paused. The muscles of his face were twitching again-and the hard, flintlike gleam was back once more in the coal-black eyes that albeen a long time a member of the ways swept the water, that never looked at Wallen. "Sahib, it was because of your mother, before you were born, that the master left the East. The heart of Ram Gulab Singh was black with hate-and revenge filled his soul. It is too long a story to tell now, sahib, Great wealth was his; those in his pay were every-your mother. And the second time, sahib"-Gunga's hands around the oars tightened until the knuckles were again. "I was sitting up for you. as white knobs protruding from the Reckon finding that chap was your acle that she was saved. But, sahib, it killed her, even if it were months afterward when your father had hidden her in the gray house the sahib succession from without-and then knows, for she was with child then, silence, and when you were born she died.

"And then, sahib, the master stayed on there to protect you, as he had promised your mother he would do. the arm of Ram Gulab Singh could forward, the crew evidently aroused, reach. Does the sahib remember the came commotion. night as a child he crawled from bed and came down the stairs, and there was a man dead upon the floor?" "I remember," said Wallen in a voice he did not recognize as his own. 'And then, Gunga?" "And then," said Gunga, "the young sahib went away; and the master had no longer any heart for anything but to stay on in the gray house. When next the master learned of you you were at sea, sahib; and after that he watched your comings and your goings "And all this time Ram Gulab Singh gave no sign. Then came the time that word reached the master that you had taken berth upon the Upolo, to trade among the islands of ter fell again the old fire, for he knew

"I sahib, he sent nere immediately to spy upon them, and this I learned: for dead men tell no tales. But for Drink-House Sam, taking with him the that paper, sahib, it so fell out, he had | Chinese of whom the sahib knows, was also to the ship, as I have related. All the Tokamaru, the sahib's ship; and sent to Shanghai to wait the coming of this, sahib, I learned tonight while I there at the time the Upolo was in port. He bribed the man who was mate to leave the vessel, and also some begin to see—a little. My father, Gun- of the crew, that there might be room for the men he had brought; and then, through the influence of others of Ram

b, was led to induce you to him in the other's p'ace. "But shib, all this I did not learn the native governor over a group of at once; and meanwhile your father, knowing well what threatened, had stopped at Honolulu and chartered the work was, done. "Sahib, here is but of the murder of Drink-House Sam to tell. Here in Singapore I have crept into the house of the banker Loo, an cld and crafty Chinese fox, who is the chief agent of Ram Gulab Singh. And it was there I learned of Drink-House Sam, who, though he was one of them, was hated by them because his demands for money were ever insistent, and because, sahib, with the years he knew

aptain, who was an hones

"And there to that house came the Kanaka tonight; and there, too, came word that you had made trouble at Drink-House Sam's. And, sahib, as wolves that feed upon themselves, and would fall upon the stranger, upon you. sahib, who had come and fought already with Drink-House Sam tonight, "He sailed to the islands where Ram they went, sahib, and did even as you Gulab Singh was; and Ram Gulab have seen. Would the sahib, too, have Singh, knowing that it was your fa- paid with blood for his father's blood? "I meant to do that thing myself; of great value, fell into the snare, but because I could not escape from Sahib, he came upon us with four where I was hidden in the house until

No word came from Wallen. For a cloud obscured the moon, and the "It was a fight, sahib, that I would riding lights of the vessel gleamed and Then Wallen raised his head At the sound Gunga too had stirred, on toward the Monleigh. And then he

At the gangway Gunga sent the boat master came upon the other as Ram adrift with a push toward the Mon-Guiab Singh was climbing over the rail leigh's stern; and Wallen, with the to escape, and his hand was on the other behind him, mounted to the boat rail, but before he had dropped into deck. There was no one on the bridge; the water the master's cutlass had sev- and if there was an anchor-watch at ered three fingers from the hand of all, the man was asleep, for they had

In the doorway of the captain's cabin Wallen halted, with Gunga beside him. "Sahib, this time the government There were empty glasses on the lockbunk. He sat up with a start at Wal-pleasant picture is dulled only by one lot-the independents, sparticists and communists are already at work trying to win the prisoners to their side, and have even placed agents where they can most easily get in touch with the Gunga-"who's this you've got here!

you about him. Gunga, this is Captain Laynton." The East Indian salsamed gravely and profoundly-and stepped respectfully back out onto the deck, away

"My father's servant-Gunga," Wallen answered. "You remember, I asked Captain Layaton stared at Wallen. Then he rubbed his eyes and stared "My word!" he ejaculated. "You look as though you'd been in a bally

"Do I?" smiled Wallen. "A few wharf-rats, that's all, captain. We'll get under way now, if you're ready."
"Aye, I'm ready," Laynton replied; he was still staring, only more fixedly now at Wallen's clothes.

Wallen, following the direction the other's eyes, glanced down-and his own eyes fixed on an ugly red smear across his pocket. He had fordeath upon the master by attacks upon gotten that! It was when he had felt for a match. "Aye, I'm ready," said Laynton swarthy skin-"it was only by a mir- business, ch? Well, I- For God's sake, what's that?" It came sudden, quick as the crack of doom-two revolver shots in rapid Wallen whirled and rushed on deck. with Laynton stumbling madly behind him. There was no one in sight save Gunga, who came running to meet But even there it was not further than them from the rail-though now from

> "What was it?" shouted Laynton excitedly. "Who fired those shots?" "They seemed to come from there, Captain Sahib," Gunga answered impassively-and pointed forward.

With an oath Captain Laynton jumped for the ladder and swung himself down to the foredeck. Wallen's eyes met Gunga's.

"Sahib," said Gunga softly, "shall viper sting twice? I was watching n the boat, for I knew we were ahead of him. He swims well, but once he splashed. It was Kanaka. He will swim no more, sahib."

CHAPTER VII.

The Wireless Message.

Wallen stretched out his arms in sort of glad relief as he came on deck not judge after appearances. next morning. He had breakfasted ate and alone, because he had slept late-but he had slept well, once he

For the time being, if he wishedand he did wish it-he could be carefree and laugh with pure happiness. The time is coming when the poor will Drink-House Sam no longer lived be get justice. fore him day and night, threatening, sintter; the ship itself, with the Kanaka gone, was purged of its men. If the earth. ace; and he knew all now-and the knowledge, concrete, definite, tangible, that sense of impotent dread, which is he attribute of the mysterious and th

Ho cloudless and blue the sky was: and the fresh, clean breeze filled the lungs as with a magical elixir! Life was good!

He had paused just outside the rel lounging room, and now a crackle from the wireless house caught his ear. That accounted for no sight of her upon the "Good morning, Miss MacKay!" he sung out cheerily as he hurried forward. "Found some one to gossip with this morning? I-" He was standing in the doorway of the wireless room now, and the words died on his lips. Brown eyes, staring out from a very white face-brown eyes that seemed to hold a shudder of contempt and loathing-met his-and she turned away her head.

A Crackle From the Wireless House Caught Hie Ear.

(TO BE CONTINUED.) Country's Largest Industry.

America's largest manufacturing in-dustry is iron and steel. The pig iron recovered in smelting iron ore amounts terials. The equivalent of about 14 per cent is driven off by volatilization in the coking of the coal; in the process of smelting a further 40 per cent escapes in gas, fumes and dust, and took heed, for we had prisoners who er and an empty bottle. Captain Layn- the remaining 21 per cent represents Sixty-five per cent of the Cuban full measure of proof, but my master Wallen! And"—he blinked again at "stout" class.

> Schmidt reports to his own obvious satisfaction that the women are having little success, and the prisoners in huge majority announce their inten-tion of standing by the empire. There is, however, a minor element among the prisoners themselves that promises possible trouble—that element which was the last drawn into the army and went to the front unwillingly and de-termined to there at the first moment. Those men are malcontents and trou-

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 21

HE KINGDOM OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE.

their sing .- Mar. 1:21.

PRIMARY TOPIC-The Wise Men Visit he Baby Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC-Bringing Gifts to Je INTERMEDIATE TOPIC-The Reign & the Prince of Peace, SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC-Perma-ent World Peace When the Prince of Peace Shall Reign.

On this Christmas occasion let u take a forward lock into the golden age which is ahead of us. It is the time of which the wise of all ages have spoken and the poets have sung. It will not be brought about through improved social conditions or even a League of Nations, but by the personal coming and reign of the Prince of Peace, the Lord Jesus Christ, It s the kingdom which Daniel said the God of heaven should set up (Dan. 2:44, 45; 7:13, 14).

I. The Lineage of the King (v. 1). He is of royal stock, the seed of David. His birth took place nearly 2,000 years ago. This Christman senson is a memorial of it.

II. The Gifts and Power of the King (*. 2).

These result from the resting upor itm of the Spirit of the Lord. Because of this endowment he is equipped to dminister the affairs of the kingdom. sixfold characterization of the Spir it's gifts shows the completeness of the equipment.

L The Spirit of the Lord. This title shows that he is to be qualified for his work by divine inspiration. 2. The spirit of wisdom. He is omniscient. Only a king of such wisdom can rule over the whole earth,

3. The spirit of understanding. This understanding, coupled with wisdom, gives discernment and discrimination. 4. The spirit of counsel. This means, loubtless, the gift of making decisions. 5. The spirit of might. This means the ability to execute his decisions. De mt the ability to execute them. 6. The spirit of knowledge. This efers to his reverent attitude toward cisions would be of little value with

III. The Nature or Character of the King's Rule (vv. 3-5). 1. A quick understanding in the fear of the Lord. He will have ability quickly to discern Godly fear in the uman heart.

2. An unerring judgment. He will 3. Ability to render decisions ac cording to the merits of the case. His decisions will not be based on hearsny, nor on plausibility, but on first-hand knowledge.

4 Impartial judgment of the poor. 5. Reproof with equity for the meek.

Jesus said that the meek shall inher-6. Ke shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth. When he comes robbed the peril that still existed of the earth will be utterly wicked. Apostasy will be manifest on every hand.

IV. The Harmony and Peace of the Kingdom (vv. 6-9). This harmony will prevail to the relationship of men and will be exyled to the animal kingdom. War be no more. The cow and the r will feed together; the lion will straw, not flesh. The sucking child sport with the most deadly serit. Paradise will indeed be restored. is will be made possible through personal reign of the Messiah in usalem, (v. 9). How the Kingdom Will Be Set Up

10-13). 1. The elevation of the King (v. 10). His elevation will be a sign to the nations; to this sign they will respond. The only way to bring unity among the nations is to exalt Jesus Christ. 2. The regathering of Israel (vv. 11, 12). Out from the nations of the earth Israel will be gathered. Israel and Judah will unite under the one king in he city of Jerusalem. 3. Envy will disappear from Ephraim and Judah (v. 13). When they see him and are joined to him the tribul antipathy will disappear.

4. There will be physical changes which will alter the surface of the earth (vv. 15, 16). When redemption will have been completed not only the spirits of men will be in accord, but there will be harmony in the animal world, and changes will be brought about in the earth itself which will make it fit for the conditions under which men will then live.

Seek to Do Good. Doing good is the heart of Christian "As you have opportunity, do We are especially to consider our brethren in these activities, but we are not to limit our activities to them. The Christian should not be satisfied unless he is giving some help to every worthy cause. He should desire to strengthen the hand of everyone who is fighting the battles of purity and sobrlety and of righteousness. He should stand by the side of every reformer who is struggling to overthrow wrong. He should interest himself in movement for better enforce ment of the laws and for the making of better laws.-Christian Index.

The prodigal bitten with remorse might have lived and died in the swine field, but he said, "I ought," "I can," "I will" go home to God. The climax of human blessedness is a will at one with the will of God. "I have come to do the will of God. "I have come to do the will of my Father." "Not my will but thine be done." "My meat and drink is to do the will of Him that

Result of His Carelessness. "Why, Johnny, you've got a lump on

"Fightin'? Not me." "But somebody struck you?"
"Nobody struck me. I wasn't fightin

"Yes. I was sitting on top of Tommy Scanlan, and I forgot to hold his feet." —London Tit-Bits.

Don't get too close to your friends or they may accidentally step on you.

Santa's Christmas Day

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

ANTA CLAUS was back in his workshop. It looked very empty. And no wonder, If you could have taken the trip which Santa Claus took you would have seen the reason why, though it would not be hard for any of us to guess the reason why.

Santa Claus on the night before Christmas and stopped at the toy stores and had taken the toys which he had left there o that the children could see them and write letters telling what they wanted.

By that time he had packs and packs for a few cents. Then moisten a soft of toys, as many as his sleigh could cloth with the "Danderine" and draw hold, and while his workshop was this through your hair, taking one empty there was a nice, cheerful appearance about it. There were lots of tools around, owever, and there were bits of cloth left from making dresses and hats for All dust, dirt and excessive oil is redollles, and there were little ends of ribbons which had tied packages. There were pieces of wood, too, which had been sawed off when bonts were made There were many other things which howed it had been a toy shop. It looked as if it had been full of toys only a little while before-and not only toys but of every sort of a Christmas present for every sort of a child. A fire was burning cheerfully in the blg stove and was making the work shop nice and warm. But there was an open fire, too, at the end of the shop with a big chair in front of it On a rug beside the chair sat Boy of the North, his head against the knee of Santa Claus,

He was wagging his tail from time to time and looking into his master's

"Good old Boy of the North, never forgets his master!" said Santa Claus. And Boy of the North was happy that Santa Claus was so pleased by the warm wrapper and slippers which he had got for his master.

"Good old Boy of the North," said Santa Claus again, patting him, and Boy of the North sniffed the air, and ooked at Santa Claus as though to

"Who wouldn't be good if he be onged to you? You're always cheerful and happy and always thinking of Children All Over World."

You like children and you like to hear them laugh and you work for them all the year. You're their King. King Santa Claus, and you're my mas

So Boy of the North tried to talk to Santa Claus and Santa Claus understood. He stroked the dog's head, and as he smiled dooking into the fireplace. "It was a wonderful trip, Boy of the North. I love to sit down here in my easy chair on Christmas day and think about it. Oh, I saw so many lovely air church peeple and hain't got a children. They were asleep and such card in our house."

hoped they were thinking about me because I like to have them fond of And Boy of the North nice smiles were playing around their mouths. I hoped, Boy of the North, I mearer as though to say: "They're fond of you just as I am fond of you-just as fond as can be!" "My reindeer had such a good time, You'll have to go out and see them in their stalls soon, and hear how they had to slow up whenever they they would awaken the children.

"And now, Boy of the North, you mow what I must do!" Boy of the North stretched himself and got up. He followed Santa Claus to a corner of the workshop and then back to a window while Santa Claus carried a long, long telescope.

"This is my magic telescope which you see me use each year, Boy of the North," said Santa Claus. "I look at children all over the world, and when they smile and I can see how happy they are then I am being thanked for my work.

"It was very hard this year to get all that the children wanted. Some years are harder than others, but the children understood and I haven't seen a single scowl. No, Boy of the North, not a single scowl. "Oh, what thanks! Every child everywhere is smiling, Boy of the North, and every child is happy!" And there were tears in those merry twinkling eyes of Santa Claus-yes, tears—but tears of joy at the smiles of children whom he had been able to see through his magic telescope.

Why He Liked Her. Visitor-Well, Tommy, do you like your teacher?

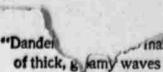

Tommy-Sure I do. Visitor-Why do you like her? Tommy-Because if I didn't she would not give me any candy for

"Why speak of past Christmases?" "Isn't Christmas always a present

Spotting an Evening.
"I'm glad to hear that the Christmas book is a thing of the past." "I thought you were a lover of

"So I am, but I don't believe in dressing up a volume to such an extent that the pleasure of reading it is reduced to a minimum by the fear that vey may leave a finger print on the

A Christmas Don't. Do not make your Christmas pres counter a small bottle of "Danderine" small strand at a time. Instantly, yes.

beauty of your hair. It will be a mass.

so soft, lustrous and so easy to do up.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor, and brightness in your hair-

This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling immediately, you have doubled the

In a few mo

Naturally when the kidneys are de-ranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, back, ankles or wrists; or under the eyes, in bag-like formations. Dr. Pierce's Anurie is many times more potent than lithia and often eliminates uric acid as hot tea melts sugar. ents you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can bave it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or tollet

Send Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel 10 cents for trial package Anuric (anti-uric). Fremont, Ohio .- "Anuric cured me when ney complaint and bladder trouble. Had blader trouble. Had pains in my back and across my kidneys, and rheumatism set in through my limbs and arms. I doc-tored without get-ting relief until I ting relief until I decided to try Anuric tablets, and it tablets, and it was your scalp, check dandruff and falling only necessary for me hair and help your hair to grow long. to take three bottles to completely cure me of all the rheu-matism."-Mrs. Daisy Cherry, 813 Gar-rison St. thick, strong and beautiful.-Adv. It's simply impossible for one man to love two women at the same time-after one of them finds it out. ASPIRIN FOR COLDS

Name "Bayer" is on Genuine

Insist on "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin in a "Bayer package," containing proper directions for Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, and Rheumatism. Name "Bayer" means genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for nineteen years. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Aspirin is trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid .- Adv.

Some women who see things just us they are drive men to seeing double,

Granulated Eyelids, Sties, Inflamed Eyes relieved over night by Roman Eye Balsam. One trial proves its merit. Adv. An enraged man tears his hair, but an enraged woman tears her husband's. Freshen a Heavy Skin With the antiseptic, fascinating Cuticura Talcum Powder, an exquisitely scented convenient, economical face. skin, baby and dusting powder and perfluous. One of the Cuticura Toilet Trio (Soap, Ointment, Talcum) .- Adv. No Cards in the House. The fourth-grade teacher had a great deal of trouble with Fred's attendance. He was absent so often that she got suspicious and wrote a note to his parents, as follows: "I am afraid that Fred is playing truant and I would like your co-operation in securing a better attendance This was the reply; "Dere Teecher-If Fred to playing truant he didn't lern it at home. We Berlin's Heating Plan. The city of Berlin adopted in July a new plan for supplying some public buildings with heat and warm water. Exhaust steam from the Berlin electricity works will be used, in addition to coke-heated boilers. Pines are to be laid in concrete conduits along the streets, the pipe sections to be welded together. A number of tenement rouses will be included in the distribution-area, which is set at about two made lots of noise, for I was so afraid miles at first. It was the original intention to commence the supply this winter, but it is doubtful if the work will have been completed in time. Three R's in Real Life. The three R's run all through lifeat twenty-five you think of romance at forty-five you thing of rent and at sixty-five of your rheumatism.-Schenectady Union

All men are a little lower than the angels, and the majority a good deal Home Jazz Outfit

W. N. U., CINCINNATI, NO. 50-1919.

Has Planned Triumphant Ret to His Native Land. Twelve years ago Chang Chau colled his queue on top of his head, donned the garb of the Occident in order to facilitate speed, and hied himself out of China between two suns. Chang Chau had made a bad guess and had allied himself in 1907 to the forlorn, hope of Dr. Sun Yat, Sen, late presiwhelmingly us, but in that year overthe Manchus now are no more, and take it from Chang, his is to be triumphal return. He has bought a merry-go-round, which for untold years has been addng to the hilarious enjoyment of Hawalian natives, and intends to set it up in Peking, an exchange says, Before many moons the blatant wall of "Je-er-er-u-us-s-nlem--Je-e e-e-r-u-us-s-alem," will be floating out from the mechanical organ of the giant swing and mingling with the thousand other noises of the Orient, while staid Chinese mandarins rock dignidedly care gaudy wooden horses, their queue robes flying out behind them as smacks something of revenge. Among Musicians. "I have a genuine Cremona violin."

Nervous? Restless at Night? Ever Have Headaches 2

How about your dail. cup of coffee? Suppose you try

Instant Po

This delightful cereal bevepossesses a fine coffee-like flavor, but has none of the harmful after-effects thru which coffee so often prevents vigorous, red-blooded health. Costs less, too.

Postum Cereal Company, Battle Creek, Sold by Grocera and General Stof

For about five years
I suffered with kid-

Fruitland Park to Elorida's lake jeweled high lands will appeal to the homesceker who, wheth

MERRY-GO-ROUND FOR CHINA Celestial, Long Resident in Hawail, the Manchu dynasty. I the troops of Chang Chau arrived in Hos 1990.

make the dizzy circuit. Cynics mr be tempted to say that Chang's rece

"What's that in these days? I have the finest cowbull known to jazz!" Some folks are never happy until something has happened that they can